The Rev. Comr. intimates that, in modification of the proposal made by the Deputy C. of the Chitaldrug Dt., he has sanctioned an allowance of Rs. 2 to one village servant in each of the affected villages of the Chitaldrug Dt. for a period of 3 months. The number of affected villages is about 390 and the cost involved is therefore 390 × 2 × 3 = 2340.

The Rev. Comr. has recently been authorized to afford relief to village servants under Sec. 177 of the Famine Code and one of the ways of affording relief to them is by giving them such sum in cash as will bring up their emoluments to the amount of the dependents allowance.

It is understood that ~~the number of~~ lists ~~heads~~ fixed by Govt. ~~for Taluk~~. The number that originally existed is being continued. Some of them hold lands in inam, but the greater part are paid by means of contributions of grain made by the village raiyat. In settled taluks, each raiyat gives 3 seers of grain for each acre cultivated by him, and in unsettled taluks, each raiyat gives from 2 seers to ½ a seer according to the kind of land held by him - The total contribution is is apparently distributed among the totis and talaris in the village. It is difficult therefore to say what exactly their emoluments would amount to and what relief may be needed by them. But the sum of Rs. 2 sanctioned by the Rev. Comr. appears to be somewhat high, particularly in view of the fact that Govt have sanctioned only Re 1 to the toti and talaris in charge of Police Collars in the State.

Further the allowance have been sanctioned to only one village servant in each village. It is not clear who is to get it, whether the toti or talari; and whoever gets it, it seems to be unfair to the other. It seems to be better therefore to depute one toti and one talari for duty connected with distress in each affected village and to grant an allowance of Re 1 to each man. This would not increase the present cost of Rs. 2340 involved.

Submitted for orders.
